The festival will take place in Neuchâtel, Switzerland, a perfect spot to enjoy both indoor and outdoor activities. The city is surrounded by nature, lakes and mountains. You will enjoy spending time in our beautiful country as Switzerland is:

- Small – you won't get lost and everything you might need or would like to see is a short distance away.
- Safe – you won't have to worry about anything.
- Social – you will enjoy meeting Swiss citizens and spending time with locals.
- Serious about sustainable development – you will see that for several years now, our country took a step ahead through this major concern.
- Stunning – if you like rocks, never-ending snow, water, town and country, our region's landscapes are breathtaking.

Registration for these events will open by the end of 2021 but please already pre-book these dates.

We look forward to welcoming you to our gorgeous, sunny, relaxing and surprising country – let's keep in touch!
